CRWP's Model Erosion & Sediment Control and Comprehensive Stormwater Codes

Chagrin River Watershed Partners, Inc (CRWP) works closely with its members, conservation partners, and contractors to develop cost-effective natural solutions to address and prevent stream impairments. CRWP staff will provide an overview of their model comprehensive stormwater, erosion and sediment control, and riparian setback codes.

Speaker: Keely Davidson-Bennett, Senior Project Manager, Chagrin River Watershed Partners, Inc.

Chagrin River Watershed Partners (CRWP) is a nonprofit organization that helps communities in the Lake Erie basin avoid and address flooding, erosion, and water quality problems.
